

Cottington Woods Theme Song

Prologue

Cm

Once upon a time in the middle of the woods

Bb F

Lay the stones of Cottington

C

Where the old way wandered and the wolves did hunt

Bb F

And the Fair Folk had their fun

Ab Eb

Then one day a man came by

Cleared the trees, hung a tavern sign

Ab Eb

People settled in as time went by

F G Cm

'Round the house at Cottington

Bb

Here's a tale about how a

Eb Bb Cm

Gm

Stone, in the wood, became a house, became a town

Fm

'Cause we're all holding each other up

Bb

Against the whim of Chance and Luck—so roll the

Eb Bb Cm

Gm

Dice, make a move, don't hold back and don't regret

F Ab

Cause we're living in the choices that we make

VA: The white winds blew and the land grew cold
In the woods of Cottington
The Snowflake Queen cried victory
And Summer was undone!

VB: The people pledged to save their home
Though heroes they weren't born to be
To find the source of winter's grip
And bring warmth to Cottington

VA: To save their friends our heroes braved
Doors deep and pirates high
By Chance or Luck their paths had crossed
When the ship fell from the sky

VB: They entered then the Snowflake Land
And turned the spell upon itself
The Snowflake Queen and her castle fell
To the folk of Cottington

Chorus

Epilogue

Once upon a time in the middle of the woods
Sat the town of Cottington
Where the old ways wandered and the fell wolves howled
And the Fair Folk had their fun

Where the folk were strong and made their peace
Neighbors to the wilder beasts
Fought wolves and trees and darker things
To survive in Cottington

Here's a tale about how a
Stone, in the wood, became a house, became a

'Cause the world shakes every day
But the homes were built to stay—so roll the Dice, make a move, don't hold back and don't
'Cause we're living in the choices that we make

Here's a tale about how a
Stone, in the wood, became a house, became a

'Cause the world shakes every day
But the homes were built to stay—so roll the Dice, make a move, don't hold back and don't

Cause we're living in the choices that we make

Cause we're living in the choices that we make

Love can be a fickle thing when summer's halfway through
A little magic goes awry and you're loving someone new

But the people of the wood set right
the love that bloomed midsummer night
A wedding or two brought some happy light to the town of Cottington

Prologue

(These stanzas are the same every event)

Once upon a time in the middle of the woods
Lay the stones of Cottington
Where the old way wandered and the wolves did hunt
And the Fair Folk had their fun

Then one day a man came by
Cleared the trees, hung a tavern sign
People settled in as time went by
'Round the house at Cottington

Chorus (sung after every verse)

Here's a tale about how a
Stone, in the wood, became a house, became a
'Cause we're all holding each other up Against the whim of Chance and Luck—so roll the

Verses

(These vary from event to event - what happened last event is sung at the next event's opening)

Prequels 1 & 2 (September 2022, October 2022)

The white winds blew and the land grew cold
In the woods of Cottington
The Snowflake Queen cried victory
And Summer was undone!

The people pledged to save their home
Though heroes they weren't born to be
To find the source of winter's grip
And bring warmth to Cottington

Chorus

Prequel 3 (October 2022)

To save their friends our heroes braved
Doors deep and pirates high
By Chance or Luck their paths had crossed
When the ship fell from the sky

They entered then the Snowflake Land
And turned the spell upon itself
The Snowflake Queen and her castle fell
To the folk of Cottington

Chorus

Chorus, twice

Event 1 (April 2022)

Love can be a fickle thing when
summer's halfway through
loving someone new

the love that bloomed midsummer night
A wedding or two brought some happy light
to the town of Cottington

Chorus
